MONEY

A Sum Was Appropriated to Establish a Patrol Wagon Service.

One of the Ways of Keeping New York Behind the Age.

In a Presentment the Need of a Police Signal System Was Set Forth.

As far back as the month of July, 1891. the Grand Jury of this county felt called upon to take action upon the deplorable condition of the city in regard to i jotice signal system and patrol-wagor ervice, or rather a lack of it. The vestigating the subject. They had also inquired into the condition of the streets and the ambulance service. The preentment which they handed up attracted attention everywhere.

It was a scathing rebuke to city ficials for wilful neglect of duties. The very worst kind, and not half adequate the needs of a great city. spoke of the hundreds of accidents which ock place every month, and of the delay in taking victims to hospitals for rentment. The delay in nearly every case lay, the Grand Jury said, in the there was no police signal system, and no patrol wagons. Here is in extract from that presentment:

'In view of the needs in this great cities, we deem it our duty to urge upon the Board of Police Commissioners all possible speed in selecting the most perfect system by which the entire patrol force of that Department may be at all times in complete and rapid comnunication with their station-houses both for police purposes and the relief of the ambulance service.

"When this selection shall have been made, after exhaustive competitive tests by the Police Department, we urge upon the Board of Estimate and Apportionment prompt action in making the appropriation necessary to bring into existence this greatly needed addition to Isabelia Stable's Fiction.

were suggested to properly equip the city. No longer would the officials he city. No longer would the officials be rebuked. They would do something, and do it quickly.

It must not be forgotten that the Police Commissioners had then been tinkering with the same subject for four years. However, they did get down to business, and in their departmental estimates for the year they asked for a sum of money to initiate the reform.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment of that time took kindly to the suggestion, and as a result a sum of $12,500 was allowed the Police Board to start with. That was simply the getting in of the wedge, as it were, it being distinctly understood that all the money necessary would be appropriated at the proper time.

Great things were looked for from the

To the Honorable, the Board of Estimate:

Gentlemen: At a meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners it was Resolved, That the Board of Estimate and Apportionment be and is bereby respectfully requested to transfer the sum of $12,500 from the appropriaton made to the Police Department for the year 1892, entitled 'For patrol wagons, horses, barreas, subsistence and repairs,' which is in a cures of the amount received for the purpose and holsest thereof, to the appropriation made to the same Department for the year 1892, entitled 'For the purpose and holsest thereof, to the appropriation made to the same Department for the year 1892, entitled 'For the purpose and the Mayor, Aldermen and Comminality of the city of New York to purchase for so, 123, 123 and 131 Charles street for the Purpose as herein expressed.

The owners of the premises designated have agreed to sell the lots for this purpose for the sum of $1,000.

words, the Police Commissioners put themselves on record as saying they do not want the patrol-wagon service at all. Yet Police Commissioner McClave says they do want it. He admits that the city needs the service and that the public, irrespective of party, are clamoring for it. Comproller Myers has been blamed and called the stumbling block, yet it is a fact that he was about the only one who objected to that transfer. He pointed out that it was given for a specific purpose, that the patrol wagons were a necessity, and yielded only because his holding out could accomplish nothing.

That, however, is not all. In view of the Month of the Month were a necessity, and yielded only because his holding out could accomplish nothing.

That, however, is not all. In view of Commissioner Mct'acc's remarks, the uninitiated might be led to imagine that owing to Mr. Myers the reform both in police signalling and patrol wagon service had been put back a century. He told the reporter that "absolutely nothing" could be accomplished until next year, when the Board of Estimate would consider the estimates for the year 1895, or unless the Legislature could be in-Now, although $12,500, appropriated for the year 1892 was diverted to another purpose by the Police Commissioners, the fact remains that a similar sum was appropriated for 1893, and so far as can be ascertained it has not yet been expended. Here is a further fact:

There is at present in the provisional estimates for next year a sum of $12,500, appropriated for patrol wagons, horses, harness, subsistence and repairs. That sum can be raised to $1,000,000 if necossary before the final estimates are passed.

Mayor Gliroy, in public meeting of the Board of Estimate, has declared himself in favor of the improvement. He has said that it is one of the greatest and set the old wages. It is reported that hus mess is good and the outlook still brighter.

That have the him the provisional destimates for next year a sum of $12,500.

Mayor Gilroy, in public meeting of the Board of Estimate, has declared himself in favor of the improvement. He has said that it is one of the greatest and most needed reforms ever undertaken; that no money, in fact, would be wasted if spent upon it.

Comptroller Myers is in favor of it, and all the members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment hold similar views.

The way is open and the road is clear. Even Corporation Counsei Clark's peculiar opinions do not stand in the way of a patrol wagon service.

As to the signal system, which has been juggled with for seven years, there is a way at the present time even of taking up that. All that is needed is to adopt a plan and the money will be obtainable.

very interesting.
